

Intern European Public Affairs

The Job

InstiCOM is looking for an enthusiast colleague to reinforce the European Public Affairs team.

Activities

At InstiCOM you will support account teams that are responsible for the Press, Communication and Public Affairs activities for clients.

- You advise clients on strategic and operational level about the public affairs policy
- You scan the European Institutions for relevant stakeholders and prepares Stakeholder Arena-analyses and Stakeholder Gap-analyses
- You follow media for relevant trends and developments
- You create media angles and position papers
- You maintain excellent contacts with media and stakeholders

Requirements

- You have university degree, preferably in European Studies or European Politics
- You have excellent Communication and organizational skills
- You are driven and have a broad public interest
- You are passionate about news, trends and developments
- You are excellent in English and French or Dutch

Offer

- A diverse and interesting traineeship in an international environment
- The possibility to create a new position at the end of the trainee period
- Creative and inspiring environment with space for new ideas and visions
- Dynamic team of passionate professionals

About InstiCOM

InstiCOM is fast growing, successful Communication and Public Affairs agency in Brussels. InstiCOM increases awareness and knowledge and reinforced authority of clients towards relevant stakeholders through an own developed methodology that fully integrates Public Affairs and Public Relations. InstiCOM continues to focus on widening the social basis of organizations and mobilizes the media and opinion-leaders to improve identification by the public. InstiCOM is active for (listed) companies, public and trade organizations. For more information: www.insticom.be.

Interested?

Contact us or sent a mail with motivation and CV to hans@insticom.be.

InstiCOM SPRL

Avenue Victor Jacobs 74

1040 Brussels

t.02 627 06 00